THE PROPOSED REFORM SCHOOL.
In answer to the inquiry of an Oregonian reporter regarding the probability of the establishment of a reform school in this country, Mr. W. S. Keady, who was the leader in the movement to close the state prison, said that nothing more could be done at the present time. The bill which was introduced in the legislature last session, and which was passed by the house, but which was not passed by the senate, was not passed by the senate.
